PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

-Barbara Davidson

Dear League Colleagues,

I realize that February will be history by the time you receive this message, but I still want to call your attention to some of February's events with your indulgence.

February 14 was Oregon's birthday as well as Valentine's Day. February 15 was Susan B. Anthony's birthday in 1820. It is notable to recognize that it was 100 years later when women finally won the right to vote. Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton and many other determined women of that era deserve our thanks for their perseverance.

What does this mean to you and me?? Well, utilizing the opportunities provided by their hard work could translate to becoming educated on the issues of the day identified by you and the League, sharing that knowledge with friends and neighbors, and communicating your concerns to elected officials. It just happens that our Oregon Legislature and Congress are both in session now, and you may want to respond to Legislators on some of the bills which have been proposed.

If you want to get up-to-date Legislative Reports, sign up via the www.lwvor.org website or email Rebecca at lwvor@lwvor.org, the League's state office. Remember that the League's goal is education and then action by individual citizens.

An opportunity for education is March 10 when the Rogue Valley League will sponsor a program on Immigration. I hope you will attend and bring a friend.

Barbara

Responsibility to Protect [R2P]

Mass atrocities committed against civilian populations during the last decade and continuing failure of some nations to protect their own population from genocide, war crimes, crimes against humanity or ethnic cleansing has caused much soul-searching and debate at the local level and within the international community – both at the intergovernmental, UN level and among the NGO/civil society community globally.

Finally, September 16, 2005, The World Summit – attended by 150 heads of states and governments, largest such gathering ever – at the UN in New York, unanimously affirmed the “responsibility to protect populations from genocide, war crimes, ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity.”

The 2005 Summit Outcome Document spelled out three core principles of the R2P concept:

1. The responsibility of each member state to protect its population from the above-mentioned crimes [Genocide, etc.] and their incitement.
2. The responsibility of the international community to organize peaceful collective action to help states to exercise this responsibility including capacity-building and preventive diplomacy.
3. The responsibility of the international community to take collective action through the UN Security Council if states fail to protect their own populations from these four crimes.

R2P is now emerging as a priority issue for the UN system and the global community as some states have ignored the core principles of R2P and continued with business as usual in abusing its population. The UN Secretary-General, Ban Ki-moon has made “protection” as one of his highest priorities and has urged all concerned to ensure that R2P principles are observed in words as well as in deeds by all states.

IN MEMORIAM

The LWVRV extends its condolences to the family and friends of long-time League member, Genevra Melendy.

Genevra Anne Melendy - LWVRV member since 2008

I first met Genevra in 2009 at our General Meetings, which she attended several times with her husband.

From the Medford Tribune, February 11, 2011

Genevra Melendy passed away at home on January 22, 2011. Born in 1923 to Charles and Josephine Newman, she grew up on the family farm in Virgil, Kansas, with her two sisters and developed a lifelong love of gardening, nature and hard work. She graduated high school in 1941 and moved to Pasadena, (California) to attend college.

When WW11 broke out, she became a 'Rosie the Riveter' at Douglas Aircraft in Long Beach... she married the love of her life, Clyde Melendy, in 1954...."

During their marriage the couple lived in Tatoosh Island WA, then Warrenton, Redding, and San Diego before moving to Portland and then to Medford in 2004. Surviving Genevra are her husband Clyde, a sister, four daughters, sons in law, and five grandchildren.

The family requests, " in lieu of flowers, please plant something in her memory or donate to Access, Inc/ Medical Equipment for Providence Hospice. A celebration of her life will be held later in Portland."
